

Hello UNMJobs Users,

In preparation for the launch of UNMJobs 2.0 on April 3, 2017, demonstrations of the system's key features will be presented on North and Main Campus in the coming weeks.

During the 90-minute session, 60 minutes will be dedicated to presenting what is new and different through a live demonstration of the applicant experience and enhancements related to the recruitment process. The last 30 minutes is reserved for questions.

Please Note: These are not training sessions. A separate email will be sent out when training for the new UNMJobs is available.
